DEDICATION

The Staff of the 1970 FAYATTEVILLIAN proudly and with deep appreciation dedicate this volume of the Fayettevillian to Mr. Harvey C. Jenkins, chairman of The Area of Art, for his never-tiring willingness to help students — academically and otherwise through his advice, his exemplification of professional competence, and his devoted dedication to FSU and education.

Mr. Jenkins hails from Orangeburg, S. C. He joined the FSU faculty in 1963. His academic attainments are as follows: B.A. — Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina; M.A. Professional Diploma — Columbia University, New York, New York. He has also done post-graduate study at Columbia University

Serving both as professor and as a member of various university committees, Mr. Jenkins has proven himself to be an asset to the University. To further the staff's dedication choice, we take these lines from Matthew Arnold's "Rugby Chapel!" which are helpful, but still inadequate.

In the paths of the world,
Stones might have wounded thy feet,
Toil or dejection have tried
Thy spirit, or that we saw
Nothing — to us thou wast still

Cheerful, and helpful, and firm!
Languor is not in your heart,
Weakness is not in your word,
Weariness not on your brow."

From College . . .

Fayetteville State College was established by Senate Bill Number 472 which was ratified by the General Assembly of North Carolina on March 8, 1877. The bill was introduced in Senate by Mr. Thomas Nicholson from Iredell County and was known as the "Act to establish normal schools."

Seven presidents have served the College since its establishment. They are as follows: Mr. Robert L. Harris (1877-1880), Mr. Charles Chesnutt (1880-1883), Dr. Ezekiel Ezra Smith (1883-1888), Mr. George Williams (1888-1895), Dr. Ezekiel Ezra Smith (1895-1898), Rev. Robert E. Fairley (1898-1899), Dr. Ezekiel Ezra Smith (1899-1933), Dr. James Ward Seabrook (1933-1956), and Dr. Rudolph Jones, who was elected president in July, 1956. In July 1969 Dr. Jones resigned and Dr. Charles A. Lyons became the new president.

To University —

Fayetteville State University is the second oldest State supported institution of higher learning in North Carolina. Only the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is older.

There were several name changes during the intervening years. The Legislature of 1969 established the name, FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

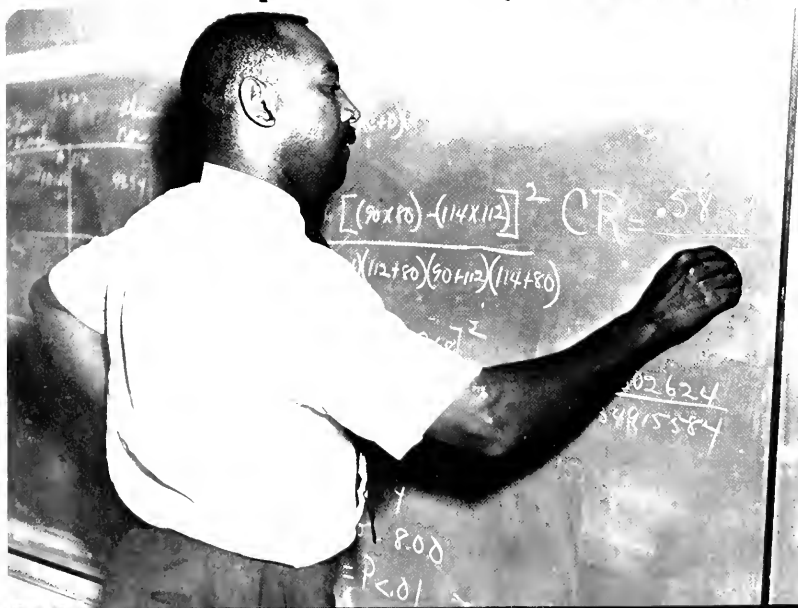

The academic year 1969-70 has been perhaps one of the busiest, most demanding and, I hope, most productive for all of us. Building on the firm foundation left by our predecessors we have endeavored to project for Fayetteville State University a role and image commensurate with the needs and demands of the vibrant seventies. This has involved administration, staff and students working in concert to "do our own thing" and to develop "our institution." For these and many other reasons this has been an exciting year for me.

I commend the class of 1970 for your diligence and hard work. You leave the cloistered walls of your alma mater to "try your new wings" at an exciting and unusual time in our history. We believe you will fly. I ask you to remember that there must arise among our people a leadership that is not out hunting bargains for itself, but one which is dedicated to the task of human uplift. I challenge you to be a part of that leadership.

The President's secretaries seem eager to pause and smile for yearbook photographers.

From The Editors Desk

Feb. 20, 1970

As the school year ends, I look back at the months past. From reminiscing I conclude that putting a yearbook together is not one of the easiest jobs to tackle. I must admit that during those months there were times when I thought there would be no 1970 FAYETTEVILLIAN.

Suddenly, I realized that the responsibility was mine as Editor-In-Chief to assure myself and the staff that the 1970 FAYETTEVILLIAN would be a reality. Consequently, the staff very quickly learned that to do a job and to do it well requires many hours of planning and working. There were deadlines to be met, pictures to be taken, layouts to be drawn and many other tedious tasks to be performed.

I would like to thank all the staff members and Associate Editors for a job well done. I would like to give special thanks to Associate Editors LaVern McNair, Beryl Williams, Ronnie Cox and Assistant Editor Leonard Crumm for their never tiring efforts and deep concern in the publication of this book.

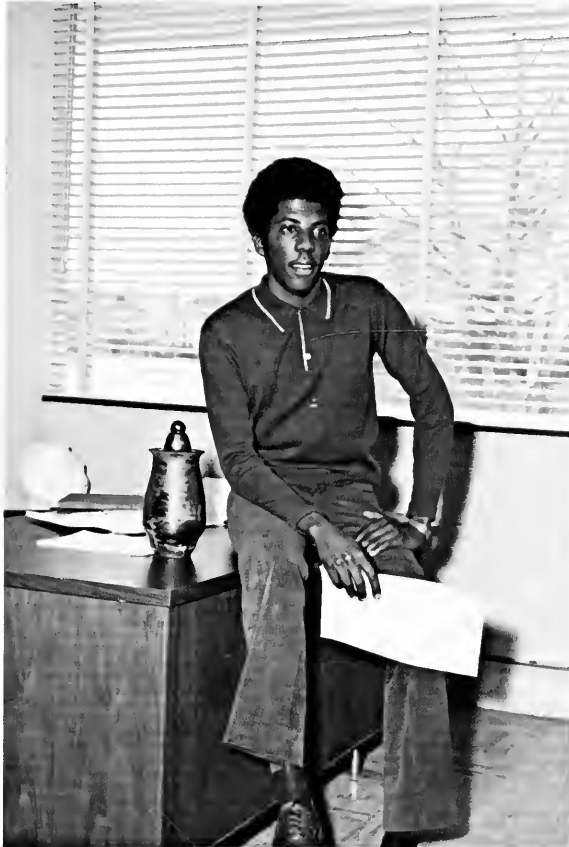

I hope that as you continue to browse through this edition of the FAYETTEVILLIAN you will find memorable moments and events that you will treasure for years to come.

The staff and I truly hope that the 1970 "Bronco"-inspired FAYETTEVILLIAN will meet your expectations. This year's edition contains more pages and color than any past edition. We have attempted to present to you in a digested form the scope of the University and its students as it really is, during a time of change. I showed no favoritism to any persons, groups or ideas. Instead, I attempted to present a publication that all students, faculty and administrators will feel a part of. With this in mind, I see no reason to make any excuses or apologies for what I have said or done.

Sincerely,

Robert Haskins, III

Pledge Club — Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Alpha is the first National Greek Letter Fraternity founded for Blacks and by Blacks in the United States. It originated at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York during the school year of 1905-1906. The decision was made on December 4, 1906 that it become a fraternity and this is set aside as the founding date of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

The organization stemmed from the idea of establishing a social-literary club. Over a period of time the idea of a fraternity became prevalent. The "Alpha Phi Alpha" was proposed and Old Gold and Black were adopted as the colors.

The Chapter here at Fayetteville State is Epsilon Zeta, and it began here in 1958.

The Delta Gamma Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the oldest Greek letter organization on the campus, was chartered at the University in May, 1951. From its conception, it has strived to live up to the four Cardinal Principles: Manhood, Scholarship, Perservance and Uplift and the establishment of a solid bond at the University of friendship and brotherhood with other groups. The Delta Gamma Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi has proven itself as a worthwhile organization by working in conjunction with the University and its administration, keeping the University and the lanern upmost in the light and life of all concerned.

Delta Sigma Theta was founded in 1913 by Howard University undergraduates. These youthful students were vitally interested in the social welfare, academic excellence and cultural development of their people. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is recorded in Washington, D.C., as the first incorporated Black Sorority.

Delta Sigma Theta has grown to over two hundred and fifty chapters — graduate, undergraduate and mixed. Its members lies throughout the United States and Several foreign countries. Its Membership is also inter-racial in character.

Finally, after much deliberation the permanent organization of $\Phi\beta\sigma$ was formed on January 9, 1914; this date is considered the "Founders Day" of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. The original three founders, Taylor, Morse, and Brown, chose nine of their college classmates at Howard University as the charter members of the Fraternity, these men were: S. P. Massie, J. A. Franklin, S. E. Jones, B. A. Mathews, W. F. Vincent, T. L. Austin, W. E. Tibbs, J. H. Howard, and I. L. Scruggs. A. Langston Taylor was the first President, C. I. Brown was elected vice-president, and L. F. Morse served as Secretary-treasurer. These twelve men chose the name Phi Beta Sigma for the new organization. In this manner was established the Mother Chapter, Alpha Chapter, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Staff members meet to finalize book as LaVern listens to the Editor, Robert Haskins as he explains the importance of making the deadlines.

DON'T BE A YEARBOOK DROPOUT

What does the Yearbook Staff encounter while working on the Yearbook? Nobody but the Advisor, Editor, and the dedicated Staff members really know. An outsider probably thinks it is all "smooth sailing," but it is quite the contrary. We the staff have the task of completing the book during our free time. We can't cut classes, although we sometimes do, to work on the book. However, we carry the same academic load as other students.

The job would be much easier if we could get full cooperation from the entire University family. Sometimes schedules are set for various organizations to take pictures, but when the time comes, only two or three members are present and often no one shows up. Therefore, we have to reschedule the time for picture taking. Since we cannot get full University cooperation from the administration, students, and faculty it is impossible for us to produce a book which all would be proud of.

But fellow Broncos, don't think we only face problems! There are two issues to this situation, the same as there are to all undertakings. We find pleasure in trying to maintain a positive attitude to this question: "Will we make the deadline?" The going gets rough, but we "keep on pushing." Finally, after all the long hours of tedious work, the task is over and the FAYETTEVILLIAN is complete. The Staff will have that long-awaited free evening, and the grades will begin to improve.

We, the Staff of 1969-70, are urging the support of all fellow Broncos for next year's FAYETTEVILLIAN. If we are to have a good book, one all can be proud of, your HELP is needed.

"OLD WHITE AND BLUE"

Our colors so true, oh hail, white and blue
 To thee our voices ring,
Tho' seasons may roll, and changes unfold
 Thy praise we'll ever sing.
All Honor and love and loyalty
 We pledge our hearts anew,
Our Alma Mater, FSU
 We hail thee, Old White and Blue!
We cherish each hall, each time honored wall
 Each bending tree and bower,
Tho' far we may roam, thy spirit leads on
 To victory and power.
With courage and might and majesty
 March on Old colors true,
Our Alma Mater, FSU
 We'll stand by Old White and Blue!
